

POLICE OF THE QUALITY

The control of the quality management is a sector involved to manage the quality of our products maintaining all actions and steps needed to monitor every quality standard required by Salani.

Salani boatyards Snc has developed own management quality system compliant to the ISO:9001 standards which is applied in rowing boats production, repairing and customer service.

In this way Salani plans to maintain high standards of its corporate performance combined with the complete care in terms of quality and environment.

Emitting this document Salani Snc defines its quality policy for rowing boats production and customer assistance on which Salani founds its primary principles.

CUSTOMER ORIENTED

Salani gets at the centre of its attention expectations and needs of its customers. Salani has the care to grant a qualified, expert and continual to its customers.

The loyalty, satisfaction of our customers and decades activity of our boatyard are the indicators of our success.

RESULTS ORIENTED

High quality standards in customer service and better product than our competitor are the necessary steps to get lasting and excellence results towards our stakeholders.

PROCESS ORIENTED

Analyze and lasting monitoring to our corporate process ensure a quick achievement of our goals thanks to an optimal use of our resource based on a clear corporate strategy.

We care to focus and manage non-conform actions that are incoherent with our quality standards avoiding the inefficiency towards our stakeholder.

LEARNING, INNOVATION AND IMPROVEMENT

Work team, use of methodology targeted and feedback exchange with our customer are the necessary steps to grant a lasting improvement of strategy performance.

Thanks to creativity and learning our employees increase their competence.

Looking for maintaining high quality standards system we want increase monitoring of our costs and production performance.

PARTNERSHIP MAKING

The concrete and lasting partnership with our agents and supplier, spread in all the world, grant us durable commercial relations with them and grant a durable attendance on international race camp.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Safeguarding our employees safety and health are primary rules and lasting commitments in our corporate mission.

We grant these safety standards thanks to lasting analysis and investment to increase the reliability of our corporate processes respecting all regulations regarding work health and safety.

In this way we can defend health and wellness of our employees.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSABILITY

We want safeguard the resource within product life cycle to grant and plan the respect for environmental growing up the respect and credibility to us.

ETHICS

Since 1950 Salani has been believing in correctness as prerequisite to get corporate goals.

Correctness and honesty are the core values of our employees and our collaborator, assuring security of stakeholder's rights ever. This is our behavioral model in which we trust.

Our staff differ for its ethics in conduction negotiations as well as the respect for law, regulations and corporate procedures adopted in the yard.

We care about development and qualification for our employees and collaborator. One of our main goal is engaging and sharing ethical principles with our staff.